Postlude Trusting Jesus, #678

We will celebrate the Lord’s Supper at evening service next week. Please make a point of preparing yourself for this by searching your heart for unconfessed or unrepented sin, by ensuring that you are at peace with all so far as in you lies, and by examining yourself to see whether you are in the faith. Studying the Westminster Larger Catechism, questions 171-175, or Shorter, 96-97, would be helpful.

“Come to Me, all who labor and are heavy laden,
and I will give you rest.
Take My yoke upon you, and learn from Me,
for I am gentle and lowly in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls.”

Matthew 11:28-29

Quiet Preparation for Worship

Please take time before the service to compose your heart for worship. You have come into the house of God, a harbor from storms, a safe haven from conflict, a place of rest for weary souls. Cast aside the concerns of your everyday life, and find relief here.

The Inspired Psalmist Exhorts Us, God's People, to Worship

Call to Worship

Psalm 93

The LORD reigns, He is robed in majesty; the LORD is robed in majesty and is armed with strength. The world is firmly established; it cannot be moved. Your throne was established long ago; You are from all eternity. . . the LORD on high is mighty. Your statutes stand firm; holiness adorns Your house for endless days, O LORD.

God Declares His Law to Us

The First Commandment:

You shall have no other gods before Me. —Deuteronomy 5:7

The Prophet Isaiah Summons Us to Confess Our Sin

Come, all you who are thirsty, come to the waters; and you who have no money, come, buy and eat! Come, buy wine and milk without money and without cost. . . Seek the LORD while He may be found; call on Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way and the evil man his thoughts. Let him turn to the LORD, and He will have mercy on him, and to our God, for He will freely pardon.

—Isaiah 55:1, 6-7

We Respond by Confessing Our Sin

Corporate Confession

Almighty and most merciful Father: We have erred and strayed from Your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against Your holy laws. We have left undone those things that we ought to have done, and we have done those things that we ought not to have done, and there is no health in us. But, O LORD, have mercy on us, miserable offenders. Spare us O God, who confess our faults. Restore us who are penitent, according to Your promises declared to mankind in Jesus Christ our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of Your holy name. Amen.

The Scripture Assures Us of Our Gracious God's Forgiveness

I acknowledged my sin to You and did not cover up my iniquity. I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the Lord" and You forgave the guilt of my life. —Psalm 32:5

If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness. —1 John 1:9
